

LFD Testing Schedule – September 2021

All consenting students should arrive at the North Gate in full school uniform at their designated time (see below).

They will be directed to the dance studio where they will be greeted by their form tutor and their Head of Year.

They will be briefed about the testing process before entering the testing centre which is situated in the Sports Hall.

After being tested in the first cycle of tests, they will leave the school site and return home. The whole process should take a maximum of thirty minutes.

In the second cycle of tests, they will return to their classroom.
